How to use this guide

Featured here are local businesses listed under the tourist offices of Abundance, La Chapelle and Châtel.

The numbers and letters listed next to itemised businesses (ex. "A1") correspond with the village maps at the start of this guide. Some Châtel businesses are indicated by a coloured dot.

This guide is a joint project involving the intermunicipality, Abundance valley's three tourist offices and the town halls of Bonnevaux, Chevenoz and Vacheresse.

The Abondance valley,
Country of art and history

The Abondance valley belongs to the national network of Cities and Countries of art and history. The Ministry of Culture and Communication awarded the label to the Abondance valley for the first time in 2003. It engaged the local authorities in a series of measures of knowledge, conservation, protection and enhancement of the architecture, heritage and landscapes.

The winter and summer cultural programmes are available in tourist offices and town halls.

Multi Pass: enjoy many activities in the Portes du Soleil!

Whether you're staying in the Portes du Soleil for a week, visiting for a day's walking, or perhaps you just happen to live here, the Multi Pass Portes du Soleil ensures unlimited access to more than 50 leisure facilities in the 12 villages-resorts from June to September!

The Portes du Soleil is reinventing summer holidays in the mountains.

Mountain lift companies: useful information

Don't waste time when you arrive, the following steps are recommended:

- Book your ski lessons.
- Take out insurance unless already covered.
- Now buy your liftpass; be sure to show liftpass sales staff your ski school reservation and repeat any ski school recommendations to them so you receive the most suitable offer.

Note: downhill ski passes are not valid for cross-country facilities. Please buy the right pass from the Nordic centre in tourist offices and at La Chapelle mountain lift ticket offices.

Insurance

L'Assurenski

Seasonal insurance valid for 6 months for the winter season, intended to cover European amateur sportsmen during the practice of a skiing activity.

Guarantees if you can not ski (accident, sickness, early return) according to general insurance conditions:

- Assistance and first aid, research expenses.
- 1st transport, medical office or hospital.
- Refund ski passes and ski lessons.
- Civil liability, defense and remedies.
- Home repatriation.
- Reimbursement of emergency medical expenses.

Winter rates 2017-2018:
